HELD TO THE GRAND JURY.

Jose Amparano Suspected of Stealing as Well as Forgery.

It is alleged that Jose Amparano is a worse criminal than was at first supposed. It will be remembered that on last Saturday afternoon he was arrested, charged with forging the name of Chas. Holts to a $25 check and cashing it at Lukin's Cash Store. The hearing on that charge was continued from Monday afternoon to yesterday morning but in the meanwhile another charge was brought against him; that of stealing a wheel from a Mexican in Phoenix by the name of Araviso. The wheel had formerly been in Amparano's possession but had been sold by him to one Manuel Leon for the small sum of four dollars, which in taking into consideration the value of the wheel, was a suspicious act on his part. The wheel was identified by Mr. Araviso and Jose failed to give a very satisfactory account of having it at one time in his possession and later selling it. He said that he had found it in his yard where a man had left it one evening and had never returned to claim it.

His hearing on the forgery charge came up yesterday at ten o'clock and the charge was sustained through the hearing; all the excuse that was offered in his behalf was that during the time the crime was alleged to have been committed he was so drunk that he did not know what he was doing. The evidence was against him and he was bound over to the grand jury at $500 bail.

It being so evident that he will be convicted on the forgery charge, it was thought best to drop the bicycle stealing case as the evidence in that case was somewhat meager. This was accordingly done and the wheel will be returned to its owner.

$50.00 in prizes given for the best bread baked with Ruby Flour, brought to the Arizona Fair.

CANDIDATES HERE.

Watson Pickrell, republican candidate for the council, is home for a couple of days resting up from the strenuous duties of the campaign in which he has been engaged for the past week and which he expects to continue for the next few to come. He has just returned from a trip in the lower end of the valley and says the political outlook is very flattering.

Carl T. Hayden, democratic candidate for sheriff, spent yesterday here among friends. He, however, declined to make any statement for publication.

NORMAL FACULTY INCREASED.

By the Addition of a New Member, Robert M. George, of Penn.

The faculty of the Tempe Normal school has been increased by the addition of a new member, Prof. Robert M. George, formerly a resident of the state of Pennsylvania. He has been in the valley some time and has been making his home at Scottsdale but will now be a permanent resident of Tempe and will assume charge of his new duties at the normal this morning. He spent yesterday at the institution, merely familiarizing himself with the work of the school and heard no class.

Application was made for an additional teacher last June but no action was taken by the board at that time for the reason that it was thought best to wait until the opening of school this year; it being thought that possibly the services of another teacher would not be required. Very shortly after the opening of the normal, however, it became evident that there were too many scholars there for the present faculty to take care of to the best advantage and accordingly Prof. George was added to the present faculty.

Prof. George comes to Tempe highly recommended as a teacher of long experience. After completing the work of the grammar schools of Pennsylvania he spent four years abroad taking academic work in Switzerland and after returning to the United States spent two years teaching in the preparatory schools of Pennsylvania. He then entered Columbia university and took his Bachelor's degree there in 1901 and his Master's degree in 1902. He then became a regular member of the faculty of the Horace Mann training school in which capacity he served for two years. He was then a member of the faculty of the Bridge school of Cambridge, Mass., which prepares a student for Harvard. His work in the normal will be in the English and mathematical departments.

Ask your grocer for Ruby Flour and "practice up" for the prize.

A SEWING MACHINE.

The New York store is advertising a White sewing machine to be given away free to some one of its customers. The particulars are explained in their store's ad which appears on this page.

AN OLD RESIDENT HERE.

Mrs. Geo. Kemper of Phoenix was a visitor here yesterday. Mrs. Kemper has been a resident of Arizona for many years and at one time lived in Tempe and owned the property on which the Normal school now stands. She is considering moving back to Tempe again this winter.

THE SKATING RINK.

Brick work on Wm. Goodwin's new building is now well under way and Mr. Goodwin says he expects to have it completed within thirty days at the most. He has already placed an order for 150 pairs of skates and as soon as the building is finished Tempe will add new dignity to what is already an up-to-date town.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Wolf Sachs is up from the intake of Salton sea where he is working a force of men.

Miss Fitzgerald of the normal met with an accident during basket ball practice night before last in spraining her ankle.

In vitations have been issued by the Amusement club of the normal for a dance to be given next Friday night in Curry hall.

John Nelson is getting out a patent on a new headgate made of cement. Mr. Nelson has the frame work made, and one headgate in at corner of his place.

Frank Sanders yesterday purchased the home of B. Noble at Lehi. Mr. Sanders is an old timer here but has been in Oregon the past three years, but has returned to stay.

P. E. Fuller was simply walking in the air yesterday and speaking to none but his friends and presenting each with a fine cigar. A new boy came to their home Monday about 3 p. m. So Mr. Fuller's friends need not be offended in case he overlooks them during the next few days.

MESA CONTESTANTS.

Our contestants in The Republican's subscription race turned in last night and when their score is printed it will make some interesting changes in the place of our representatives. They will not only be ahead of the pack but Eva Young will probably rank near the top of the list—we hope in the lead. Joe Perkins also will climb up a few places, and well he deserves it, for he is a rattling good boy and a little hustler.

ARM BROKEN.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Moore, former residents of Mesa, with their daughter, Mrs. Annie Davies and child, passed through Mesa last night on their way to Phoenix.

Last Friday Mrs. Moore had the misfortune to break her right arm near the elbow. They were in the Reno mountains on the round up. Mrs. Moore doing the cooking, and all hands were moving to another camp. As the roads were too steep for a wagon, Mrs. Moore was riding on horseback and carrying the child, which is about three years old, when the horse's foot slipped over a big rock and she fell, breaking her right arm near the elbow. They did the best they could at setting the arm and then started for Phoenix to see that the arm has proper attention, stopping over night with A. L. Coker's family.

Mr. Moore and family owned a ranch south of town, but sold it a few years since and removed to Phoenix.

HOUSE CLEANING.

J. D. Robertson, proprietor of the Parlor, is house cleaning. He is getting his place in shape for repapering and painting. A couple of days since James Daly took out the unsightly electric wires and places where they would not be constantly in evidence. New colored shades were procured and placed on ceiling and bar lights, adding much to the appearance of the interior. When the new paper is on, the Parlor will have a very high-toned interior for the only "second class" place of amusement in town.

A PROSPECTIVE MILLIONAIRE.

L. B. Johnson yesterday received an assay from some ore he had sent to an expert, and begins to feel now that wealth comes to him who waits, provided always that he puts his money in a good thing and waits for development. Mr. Johnson recently became interested in a mining claim, located about seventy miles from Mesa. His partners sent him some of the ore to sample with the statement that if it ran $20 of the ton, he (Mr. Johnson) could close up his store and live at ease the remainder of his life, as there was a mountain of the ore.

The sample was sent to the assayer and gave returns of $110.49 in gold and something over $22 in silver. The latter is an unimportant detail, as the gold is alone sufficient to bring wealth to the owners of the mine, should there prove to be a body half as large as the present development indicates.

THE RECENT DEATH OF ROYAL JOHNSON

His Great Service to the Territory as Surveyor-General in the Exposure of the Peralta-Reavis Fraud.

Word was received in Phoenix yesterday of the death of Royal A. Johnson at Gardner, Mass., on October 21. He had been there for several months on business connected with the Helena Mining company, of which he was one of the original owners and stockholders. The funeral will take place at Syracuse, next Sunday.

Mr. Johnson was a little more than fifty years of age. He came to Arizona in 1882 as chief clerk to Surveyor-General Robbins, but on account of the ill-health of the latter, the duties of the office devolved upon Mr. Johnson. On the death of Mr. Robbins he succeeded to the office, where he served until 1885.

In 1889 he was re-appointed and served for four years. It was during that term that the great Peralta-Reavis fraud came into the office, and encountered the violent antagonism of the surveyor general, who contributed largely to the exposure of it. The testimony of Mr. Johnson before the land court, at Santa Fe, had much to do with the sending of Reavis to the penitentiary.

Mr. Johnson was one of the founders of the Republican, and he was a member of the first board of directors and for several years he took a deep interest in the success of it.

He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Charles M. Taylor, who is spending the winter with her grandmother, Mrs. H. M. Johnson at Syracuse, N. Y. Johnson was for many years one of the leading citizens of Pima county. His last public service in the territory was in the office of the county treasurer of Pima county where he served from 1895 until 1897.

He was at one time private secretary to Senator Teller and served him in that same capacity while he was secretary of the interior department. He was graduated on June 7, 1881 from Columbian University, Washington, D. C., with the degree of L. L. B. He was a classmate of Judge Burnett. One of the members of the faculty of the university at that time was Judge Walter S. Coy, who a year later, came into national prominence as the prosecutor of Giesse, the assassin of President Garfield.

THE GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION OF A GENERAL ELECTION.

To Be Held November 6, 1906.

To the people of Arizona:

Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 1, title XX Elections, of the Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1901, it is hereby proclaimed by the governor of Arizona:

That a general election shall be held by the qualified voters of the Territory of Arizona, on Tuesday, the 6th day of November, 1906 for the following named officers:

A Delegate to Congress;

One member of the Legislative Council, by the qualified voters of the counties of Pima and Santa Cruz jointly.

One member of the legislative council and one member of the house of representatives, in Apache county; one member of the legislative council and one member of the house of representatives in Cochise county; one member of the legislative council and three members of the house of representatives in Coconino county; one member of the legislative council and one member of the house of representatives in Graham county; one member of the legislative council and four members of the house of representatives in Maricopa county; one member of the legislative council and one member of the house of representatives in Mohave county; one member of the legislative council and one member of the house of representatives in Navajo county; three members of the house of representatives in Pinal county; one member of the legislative council and two members of the house of representatives in Pima county; one member of the legislative council and two members of the house of representatives in Pinal county; one member of the legislative council and one member of the house of representatives in Yuma county.

And in each of the several counties by the qualified electors thereof, one probate judge, and where the probate judge is not by the virtue of his office, county school superintendent, one district attorney; one sheriff, one treasurer, who shall also be, by virtue of his office, tax collector; one recorder, one surveyor; two members of the board of supervisors; and such other county officers where vacancies have occurred in the offices, and which may hereafter and before said election occur, which are required or authorized by law to be filled at said election.

Also, in each of the several justice precincts of the several counties in the territory, having a population of five thousand or over, two justices of the peace, and two constables, and in each of the several justice precincts of said counties, having a population of less than five thousand, one justice of the peace and one constable.

And I do hereby offer a reward of fifty dollars for the arrest and conviction of any and every person violating any of the provisions of Title IV, Part I, of the Penal Code; such rewards to be paid until the total amount hereafter expended for the purpose reaches the amount of one thousand dollars.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the Territory of Arizona to be affixed. Done at Phoenix, the capital, this first day of September, Anno Domini, 1906.
